

Role of the Occupational Health Nurse at Star Building Materials Ltd.

Location of the Medical Clinic:

Room 109 on the main floor of Office

- Reminder to Employees:
- When you get injured at work, report to the First Aider immediately, and they will escort you to the medical clinic for assessment, if required.

Contact Information:

Gail Mitchell, RN - Occupational Health Nurse

Cell#: 587-284-4518 Email: gail.mitchell@starbuilding.ca

Key Responsibilities:

- WCB Injury/Illness Case Management:
- Assist employee's with navigating their WCB claim
- Injury management, rehabilitation, & return-to-work planning
- Workplace Injury Assessment & Treatment:
- When you get injured at work, report to the First Aider immediately, and they will escort you to the medical clinic for assessment, if required.

- Non-Occupational Injury/Illness Case Management:
- Support employees with medical management, rehabilitation, & return-to-work planning after an absence due to illness or surgery that is not work-related (e.g., knee replacement, back surgery, mental health leave)
- Health Surveillance:
- Health screening for early identification of work-related & non-work-related illness.
- Health & Wellness Program Development:
- Health education programs, workplace wellness initiatives, and communicable disease prevention programs, and employee health and well-being advice & support.